

Supporting Details

Name _____ Date _____

What is the correct way to write this sentence?

1. has my uncle purchased german potato salad at the deli?
2. Have my uncle purchased German potato salad at the deli
3. Has my uncle purchased German potato salad at the deli?
4. Has my uncle purchased German Potato Salad at the Deli?

Supporting Details 1

(1) George Washington planned the first American flag. (2) He drew a picture of what he wanted. (3) Then he showed it to Betsy Ross. (4) He asked her to sew a flag that looked like his picture. (5) The flag in his picture showed stars with six points. (6) Ross showed him how to make a star with five points. (7) He liked this kind of star better. (8) Washington asked her to sew the flag using stars with five points.

1. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 2?

- A. He went in the office to find his pen.
- B. He liked to draw pictures.
- C. He included both stars and stripes.
- D. He was happy to know Betsy Ross.

2. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 3.

- A. She was a very good seamstress from Philadelphia.
- B. She liked to look at pictures.
- C. She wanted to make Ben happy.
- D. There were other people who looked at it too.

3. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 7?

- A. Stars can have many different looks.
- B. Stars are so fun to draw.
- C. It looked much better on the flag.
- D. It was drawn on prettier paper.

4. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 8?

- A. She was happy with Ben's decision.
- B. The flag is a great part of our heritage.
- C. She had to help her children do their homework first.
- D. The flag always flies on the fourth of July.

Answer Key: Editing: 3 1. C 2. A 3. C 4. A

Name _____ Date _____

Which is the correct way to write this sentence?

1. "You go inside and sit down," she said.
2. "you go inside and sit down she said."
3. "You go inside and sit down, she said."
4. "You go inside and sit down. she said."

Supporting Details 2

(1) Darla needed money to buy her mother a Mother's Day present. (2) She had already saved ten dollars. (3) She needed ten more dollars to buy the bracelet in the window of the downtown store. (4) Soon she came up with a plan. (5) First, Darla got out her water colors. (6) Next, she found some art paper. (7) Finally, she planned the picture to paint.

1. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 2?

- A. Darla liked saving money.
- B. Darla had cut the neighbors lawn to earn money.
- C. Thomas Jefferson is on the ten dollar bill.
- D. Thomas Jefferson was a great president.

2. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 3?

- A. The bracelet cost $18.50 plus tax.
- B. Nothings too good for my mother.
- C. Mother is the best ever.
- D. Money doesn't grow on trees.

3. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 5?

- A. Water colors are fun to use.
- B. Water colors are better than acrylics.
- C. She had five primary colors and five pastels.
- D. She liked mixing paints.

4. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 6?

- A. Darla looked everywhere for it.
- B. She found lots of shapes and sizes.
- C. She found some of her old toys too.
- D. She went to visit her neighbor.

Name _____ Date _____

What is the correct way to write this sentence?

1. ~~One thing that bothers me is when theres no one at home after school~~
2. One thing that bothers me is when there's no one at home after school.
3. ~~One thing that bother me are when theirs no one at home after school~~
4. ~~One thing that bothers I is when they're's no one at home after school~~

Supporting Details 3

(1) Today I took my dog, Boomer, to the vet. (2) For three days he has been feeling poorly. (3) There's not much "zip" in his "yip" . (4) The vet gave me medicine to put in Boomer's food. (5) But I think Boomer is smarter than the vet. (6) At dinner, he ate all of his food but none of the pills. (7) So, what do I do now?

1. Which sentence is a supporting detail for sentence 2?

- A. All Boomer wants to do is sleep.
- B. Boomer is a sweet dog.
- C. Boomer loves to lick me.
- D. Boomer has a lazy eye.

2. Which sentence is a supporting detail for sentence 3?

- A. Boomer is a great watchdog.
- B. Boomer is a cocker spaniel.
- C. When someone comes to the door he hardly barks.
- D. We keep Boomer in the laundry room.

3. Which sentence is a supporting detail for sentence 4?

- A. Medicine is good for dogs.
- B. I'm suppose to give it to him once a day.
- C. The pills are green and brown.
- D. Medicine can make you well.

Answers: Editing 2 1. A 2. C 3. B

Name _____ Date _____

What is the correct way to write this sentence?

1. ~~Should I had ask Grandma to meet us at Rustlers Restaurant.~~
2. ~~should i had ask grandma to meet us at rustlers restaurant~~
3. Should I have asked Grandma to meet us at Rustler's Restaurant?
4. Should I had ask Grandma to meet us at Rustler's restaurant?

Supporting Details 4

(1) The main purpose of a law is to protect people and keep them safe.
(2) Another reason is to help keep order. (3) Laws are very much like rules.
(4) Some laws tell people what they can or must do. (5) Other laws tell people what they cannot or must not do. (6) Your town may have a law that requires all children under the age of 12 to wear bike helmets. (7) The purpose of this law is to keep you safe.

1. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 1.

- A. This includes traffic and property laws.
- B. Laws are fun to learn about.
- C. Laws can be harsh..
- D. This is how laws are made.

2. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 2.

- A. Order is very important too.
- B. You can keep you room orderly.
- C. The judge says "Order in the court".
- D. These laws also keep people from getting hurt.

Name _____ Date _____

3. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 3.

- A. You learn about both in school.
- B. Rules are like consequences.
- C. They both set guidelines for people to follow.
- D. The both are things you see everyday.

4. Which sentence would be a supporting detail for sentence 6?

- A. Biking is for all citizens.
- B. This law tells something we should do.
- C. This law tells something you should not do.
- D. This is a awesome law.

Answers: editing-3 1. A 2.D 3. C 4. B