

Clue Words to Look for in Test Questions

Teacher Suggestions: Distribute entire list as a study handout. Cut into strips and give to students for individual or group work/study. Following this model, ask students to write their own test questions and answers in their respective content areas. Have students conduct word hunts and find examples in newspaper or other forms of print. Create class thesaurus using these words and post in classroom. Discuss how these words are used in all content areas. Many of these words lend themselves to using graphic organizers, especially the Venn diagram.
